

Builders of the Bellamy

Draw a line from the job title to the correct person.

carpenter

James F. Post (1818-1899) designed many famous homes and buildings in Wilmington. James' job was as an _____.

plasterer

Rufus W. Bunnell (1835-1909) drafted, or drew up, the plans for buildings designed by James F. Post. Rufus was a _____.

architect

Henry Taylor (1823-1891) helped build the Bellamy mansion. Henry used Rufus's plans to build the wooden parts of the house. Henry was a _____.

draftsman

William B. Gould (1837-1923) helped decorate the inside of the Bellamy mansion—like the fancy ceilings. William was a _____.